Rick Arnheim

After graduating in 1978, Rick worked for a large Chartered firm in a tax advisory capacity. In 1986 he established his own tax and accounting firm then in October 1986 commenced a financial planning practice with Godfrey Weston (now Godfrey Pembroke).

In January 2000 the accounting practice was sold to enable Rick to focus solely on financial planning.

Godfrey Pembroke awarded Rick "Consultant of the Year" in 2001. His clients today include Australia's business leaders.

Rick has a host of qualifications/memberships in his field:

- Certified Financial Planner
- Authorised Representative of Godfrey Pembroke Limited
- Member of the Financial Planning Association (FPA)
- Diploma of Financial Planning (1998) - Deakin University
- Society of CPAs (1982)
- Institute of Chartered Accountants (1985)
- Fellow of the Australian Institute of Company Directors
- Justice of the Peace

Rick is a regular speaker at industry functions and professional associations and been invited to speak at the financial planning association national conference on several occasions. He has a warm and friendly presentation style.
